Since beginning my RCIA journey I have noticed that I have grown closer to God. I am striving to become my best self and hoping with God's grace to become a better Christian. I have also gained in Knowledge of the Catholic faith and doctrine. This knowledge is very important to me as a person.

The highlight of my journey is understanding the Catholic faith, and understanding what it is to become a Catholic Christian. I have reveled at the knowledge of the Eucharist and sacraments. I have greater understanding of the saints, and the honor that is given to Mary, Mother of God. I have enjoyed the various personal testimonies during the RCIA Wednesday meetings.

Coming from an Anglican background, there are many rich similarities with the Catholic faith. However, becoming Catholic is a transcending experience that has exceeded most of my expectations. After Easter Vigil I am looking forward to participating, receiving, and experiencing my first Holy Communion in the Catholic Church.

Today marks the beginning of Holy Week. Our final week before receiving the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and First Eucharist, at the Vigil on Saturday night. Please come out and support us as we receive our Sacraments.

Thank-you for all your prayers during Lent.

A Word About Trauma...

Trauma and associated words are being used more now than ever. Do we know the origins of these words? Are their meanings different now than when they were first used? Each week we will explore a trauma-associated word's origins, meanings and evolution.

Guilt ('gilt) Noun

The state of having committed an offence, or remorse over action or inaction. From old English guylt: crime, sin, fault or fine" In 1690, "a sense of guilt" was first recorded, but as a misuse of its original, "guilt by association" was first used in 1941. Guilt is a negative emotion but can lead to positive change. When related to traumatic events, guilt can result in depression, shame, and anxiety.

LESSON SEVENTEEN

FAQ: Is the Catechism intended to substitute for local, approved catechisms and catechetical materials?

No. The Catechism is intended to assist national and local churches in drafting new catechisms and catechetical materials. As John Paul II said in the Apostolic Constitution Fidei Depositum, "It is meant to encourage and assist in the writing of new local catechisms, which take into account various situations and cultures, while carefully preserving the unity of faith and fidelity to Catholic doctrine."

How can we summarize belief in the Trinity? Comment peut-on résumer la Foi en la Trinité ?

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"As they were marching out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; this man they pressed into service to carry his cross." Matthew 27:32

The Lord calls us to love God and to love our neighbor. Every day we are presented with opportunities to love our neighbor and help him "carry his cross." These opportunities aren't usually big events, they are usually ordinary occurrences like helping someone carry their groceries or holding the door open for them. The key is putting the other person's needs before our own and not expecting anything in return.

TF#342 ChatGPT and AI with John Jalsevac

- Part 2 - In this part 2 of 2, Deacon Eric and Dr. Brett visit with John Jalsevac about the explosion of interest in Artificial Intelligence and ChatGPT the newest large language model AI to be opened to the general public that demonstrates remarkable capabilities and is poised to have profound effects on arts, culture and the way humans think about themselves and others.

Show Snippet: "So if you want to train one of these models how to recognize a cat, for instance, what these programmers will do is they create this neural network using many computers. Then they show it images of, millions of cats, and at the end of it, it can predict that it's a cat with a high degree of accuracy. But a human being can actually detect a cat based upon a very small number. We have this capacity to see things as what they are with almost no effort."

CALLING ALL LAY FORMATION ALUMNI

A small group of recent Lay Formation Program graduates have come together to create a Lay Formation Alumni. We all shared a very important and life-affirming journey in the program. We share new skills and knowledge acquired in the program, and an ember has been carefully lit in each of us.

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation program has been working continuously since 1983. Since then, 591 people have been commissioned through the program, but, unfortunately, we do not have contact information for everybody.

If you are interested in being part of the Lay Formation Alumni, send your contact information to Aseret Ruiz at: Email: Aseret.ruizp@outlook.com or Cell: 306-201-6317. SAVE THE DATE: We are planning an Alumni gathering Saturday, June 17, 2023 in Regina at Campion College.

Palm Sunday is the final Sunday of Lent, the beginning of Holy Week, and commemorates the triumphant arrival of Christ in Jerusalem, days before he was crucified.

Palm Sunday
of the Lord's Passion

Why we have Palms at Mass
In the Gospels, Jesus entered Jerusalem riding a young donkey, and to the lavish praise of the townspeople who threw clothes, or possibly palms or small branches, in front of him as a sign of homage. This was a customary practice for people of great respect.

"My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

Palm Sunday Mass begins in a separate location, usually a parish hall or outside (weather permitting). The Gospel is proclaimed, the palms are blessed, and we process to the Church for the remainder of the Mass, waving our palms and signing the refrain 'Hosanna, Hosanna, in the Highest'.

The Passion of Christ is often proclaimed by three persons who take on the roles of the Narrator, the people, and Jesus. The part of Jesus is proclaimed by the priest or deacon of the parish.

ARCHDIOCESE OF Regina

> Because the palms are blessed, they may not be discarded as trash. Instead, they are appropriately gathered at the church and incinerated to create the ashes that will be used in the following year's Ash Wednesday observance.

> The colors of the Mass on Palm Sunday are red and white, symbolizing the redemption in blood that Christ paid for the world.

> The use of a donkey instead of a horse is highly symbolic, it represents the humble arrival of someone in peace, as opposed to arriving on a steed in war.
