Easter 2021

Dear fellow Parishioners,

*Christ is alive and well and with us always. How great is our joy.
How great is our hope. How great is our optimism.*

Some time ago I heard the words to a song written by Natalie Sleeth. The song really appeals to me because it is full of hope and full of Easter images. I would like to share the song with you, but first I'd like to share the background to the song as it was given to me. Natalie Sleeth belongs to the United Church and has written a number of songs that appear in the new United Church hymnal. She was diagnosed as terminally ill with cancer, and was asked by some friends how she felt about dying. It was in response to their question that she wrote these words:

*In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
In cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,*

*There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody,
There's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future; what it holds a mystery, eternity.*

*In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity,
In our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity.
In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

If Jesus is risen, and He is, then all darkness is but the birthplace of light, all suffering is the preamble to joy, all sadness and anxiety the straw from which the fire of peace grows. There is much to lament in our world at this time: COVID-19 and its effects right up front and personal. There is the lack of morality, man's inhumanity to man, the idolatry of the almighty dollar. But these things need not deflate or defeat us for Jesus is alive and with us.

May you and your families have a hope-filled and joyous Easter.

God bless,

Fr. R. Kiefel

Fr Rick

Archdiocese of Regina created Way of the Cross - Through the Voice of Victims Prayed in St. Edmund of Canterbury, England

Holy Week has many symbols, with the cross being one of the most powerful. Victims of clergy sexual abuse carry heavy crosses. In 2017, a group of victims and non-victims from inside and outside the church gathered and entered into a challenging dialogue resulting in a unique work entitled The Way of the Cross-Through the Voice of the Victims. It has been shared and prayed in parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Regina since early 2018 and was done so on a regular basis. Covid has of course forced us all to find other ways to reach out since in person interaction has been drastically restricted. Today, I want to draw your attention to a recorded live stream event that occurred on Friday, March 26 in the parish of St. Edmund of Canterbury Catholic Church in the Archdiocese of Southwark in England. A day of prayer was held for victims/survivors of sexual abuse, using The Way of the Cross-Through the Voice of Victims. The ability to reach victims on the other side of the ocean by words written here is really a truly amazing accomplishment achieved by working together. I invite you during this Holy Week to take the time to watch the recorded event and enter into the pain of the crucifixion as experienced in the lives of many victims.

TF238: Middle Earth, Magisterium and Modernity - Part 2

In this part 2 of 3, We continue our visit with Fredric Heidemann of Word on Fire discussing his conversion from staunch atheist to Catholic writer for Bishop Robert Barron's global evangelization apostolate. Show Snippet: "The Catholic Church was the patron of all these arts, the Catholic Church was doing all this...and the Universities, and sponsoring all this education; and I think "man, I can't seem to get away from the Catholic Church!"...and I was reading through my history course, I took AP History, and I thought "if you were going to be Christian, why wouldn't you be Catholic?"
