2022 CHRISTMAS HAMPERS

Once again this year Resurrection Parish will be gathering items to put together Christmas hampers.

Please visit our web-site to sign up or see the Giving Tree located in the Gathering
Space and help spread the joy of giving this Christmas season

REMINDER: The drop-off deadline for items is next Thursday, December 15th

Thank you so much for your great response to our Giving Tree in the Gathering Space. We have added new items to the tree so that more of you can help out those less fortunate this Christmas season.

Are you a knitter? Are you interested in gathering for fellowship and knitting items for those in need? We invite you to join us at Resurrection in Meeting Room 3 on Wednesday's between 1 and 3 pm. The frequency of gathering will be determined at the first gathering which will be on Wednesday, December 14. Please call the office at 306-352-0080 or sign up at the Welcome Desk if you are interested.

Can't join us, you can still help us out with donations of yarn.

Did you know that you can send your weekly tithes and offerings now by e-transfer? Send them to finance@resurrectionparish.ca and they will be included with your annual tax receipt. If you would like to inquire about other ways of giving electronically, please email the Parish at finance@resurrectionparish.ca or call our office at 306-352-0800. Thank you again for your generosity in doing the Lord's work in our Parish, our community, our city, and beyond.

HOLY LAND OLIVE WOOD PROJECT

My family and I have been helping under privileged Christian Children and their families in Bethlehem for the past 11 years. I am from Regina and originally from Bethlehem. Resurrection has been my home parish for the past 11 years, and I brought this project to the Parish at that time. Thank you to parishioners who continue to help us support 5 to 7 families every year through the selling of gifts from Bethlehem.

The items are made by the people of Bethlehem, and hand carved from olive wood direct from the Holy Land. There are Olive wood Rosaries, small necklaces crosses, and large crosses in four different sizes as well as statues and nativity scenes. These gifts will be sold after the Masses on December 3rd and 4th as well as on December 17th and 18th. The items are great for Christmas gifts, or to enhance your Christmas décor.

Thank you in advance for your help and God bless.

Have You Met Me?

In November the RCIA Candidates celebrated the Rite of Acceptance (for the unbaptised) and the Rite of Welcome (for the baptised). Check the RCIA Bulletin Board and the Bulletin to meet each of the candidates, see what they are asking of you, God's Church to learn how you can support their journey.

Show them your support by responding on the RCIA Bulletin Board in the space for Parish Support.

My name is Brendan and I was born in a small town in East Central Saskatchewan.

My interests and hobbies are: reading (everything from theological books to Christian / church history, all the way to speculative fiction). I also enjoy writing, photography, creating videos, playing music, basketball and savoring rural Saskatchewan old abandoned buildings and churches.

I decided to seek out RCIA this year as a commitment to seeking out the truth as honestly and purposefully as I can. To fully investigate the Catholic church and to then follow the truth wherever it leads me.

So far at RCIA I have enjoyed the Q&A sessions with Fr. Brad and how everyone is willing to ask serious questions with the intent to learn.

Ask God's church:

For help, in as much as is possible, in my investigative journey of my Christian walk. I am a seeker of truth and I am to follow the truth wherever it leads. My Christian life has led me through many churches and denominations, and above all, I am to be in the place that most fully contains God's revealed truth to humanity, wherever that may be.

My name is Danielle and I was born here in Regina.

My interests are music, art, sports, particularly singing and piano, playing volleyball and badminton.

I decided to take a step further and build a solid foundation in my faith as a follower of Christ by seeking out RCIA.

So far at RCIA I have enjoyed the Catholic fellowship and support I have received.

Ask of God's church:

To hold me accountable and walk with me along my spiritual journey to becoming Catholic.

Ecumenical Advent Series: What Are We Waiting For?

As Christmas and the holidays approach, Christians experience the season of Advent as a time of expectant waiting and preparation. This year, there will be a special ecumenical series of Advent meditations and conversations on the question: "What are we waiting for?" with Canadian church leaders, including:

- Rev. Dr. Robert Faris, Moderator, The Presbyterian Church of Canada
- Rev. Susan C. Johnson, National Bishop, Evangelical Lutheran Church of Canada
- Right Rev. Dr. Carmen Lansdowne, Moderator, The United Church of Canada
- Most Rev. Linda Nicholls, Primate, Anglican Church of Canada

On each Thursday in Advent (Dec. 1, 8, 15, and 22), listeners are invited to join a live discussion at 6:00 pm SK time, via Zoom, with one of the leaders on that week's Advent theme. Attendees will be able to ask questions during the online conversation.

Also, each Monday during Advent, the church leaders will release an ecumenical Advent meditation focused on one of the four Advent themes and will address challenges and opportunities facing the Canadian churches.

Find out more and register at <https://presbyterian.ca/2022/11/08/ecumenical-advent/>

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2023 - Do good; seek justice (Isaiah 1:17) January 18 to 25, 2023

Learning to do right requires the decision to engage in self-reflection. The Week of Prayer is a time set aside for Christians to recognize that the divisions between our churches cannot be separated from divisions within the wider human family. Praying together for Christian unity allows us to reflect on what unites us and to commit ourselves to confront oppression and division amongst humanity.

The 2023 WPCU resources were developed by the Minnesota Council of Churches. They reflect the ecumenical work on racial justice in the U.S. following the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis in May 2020.

Resources are now available at <https://weekofprayer.ca>, including an order of worship, hymn suggestions, 8 days of scripture reflections on the theme, and materials for children and youth.

New this year: resources for campus ministry

Canadian resources for the 2023 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity have been prepared by the ecumenical WPCU Writing and Animation Team of volunteers from member churches of the Canadian Council of Churches working in partnership with the Canadian Centre for Ecumenism, the Prairie Centre for Ecumenism, and the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada.

DO GOOD; SEEK JUSTICE.
(Isaiah 1:17)

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY 2023

8 Day Bible Study - Do good; seek justice (Isa. 1:17)

The Prairie Centre for Ecumenism and the Regina Council of Churches will once again be offering an 8 day online Bible study on the theme of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Each day will be led by a different Christian leader from across Saskatchewan. Mark your calendars for Jan. 18 to 25 from 12:15 to 1pm (except Sunday, Jan. 22 at 3pm).

Free registration required. TBA

Ecumenical Log Drivers: Forming Agents of Reconciliation for Church and World

The 2023 De Margerie Lectures on Christian Reconciliation and Unity
Rt. Rev. Bruce Myers, OGS (Anglican Bishop of Quebec)

In the past century the ecumenical movement has made extraordinary efforts in healing the wounds of division in the church. However, despite efforts to educate and inspire successive generations of Christian leaders about the quest for the church's visible unity, an ecumenical malaise has set in which ignorance, fear, mistrust, suspicion, stereotypes, caricatures, recrimination, anathematization—even persecution continue in the relations between divided churches. Drawing on decades of reflection on ecumenical reception and formation, Bishop Myers presents an approach to teaching the practical and theological aspects of ecumenism in a way that is both holistic and pragmatic and offers the potential to raise up a new generation of church leaders who are also agents of reconciliation and Christian unity.

- Wed. Jan. 18, 7:00 pm at Campion College, Regina
Thurs. Jan. 19 at 7:00 pm at St. Thomas More College, Saskatoon

You are invited to the 11th annual De Margerie Lectures. In-person and livestreamed, there will be two different lectures. Please plan to view or attend both. Details TBA.

Bishop Myers has been bishop of Quebec since 2017. Raised on a farm in Glengarry County, Ontario, he studied at the University of Toronto before a decade as a parliamentary correspondent in Ottawa and Quebec City. He completed his theological studies at McGill University, Montreal Diocesan Theological College, Bossey Ecumenical Institute, and the University of Geneva. He has recently completed a doctor of ministry at St. Paul University in Ottawa. He is a professed member of the Order of the Good Shepherd, an international community of Anglicans who share a common rule of life. Before election as bishop, he served parishes in Quebec City and the Magdalen Islands, and as Coordinator for Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations for the Anglican Church of Canada.

The De Margerie Lectures are named in honour of Fr. Bernard de Margerie, a priest of the Diocese of Saskatoon who has dedicated his whole life in ministry to the promotion of Christian unity. In this 11th year of the lecture series, we are expanding to offer lectures in both Regina and Saskatoon under the sponsorship of St. Thomas More College, the Prairie Centre for Ecumenism, the Archdiocese of Regina, and Campion College.

Third Sunday of Advent

National Day of Prayer in Solidarity with Indigenous Peoples

Dec 12th is the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, when the Church in Canada celebrates The National Day of Prayer in Solidarity with Indigenous Peoples. This initiative, coordinated since 2002 by the CCCB Advisory group, the Canadian Catholic Indigenous Council, marks this feast as a day of prayer, solidarity and reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples. Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patron of the Americas, appeared in Mexico in 1531 as an Indigenous woman to St Juan Diego, whose Indigenous name was Cuauhtlatoatzin ("Eagle Who Speaks"), and spoke to him in his Indigenous language of Nahuatl. She is wearing the black sash around her waist, which is an Aztec Maternity Belt that Mexican women would wear to indicate they were with child. At a time when colonizing powers in the Americas were showing little respect for Indigenous ways, language, and culture, the mother of Jesus, comes as an Indigenous woman to this land, affirming her special love, indeed her identification with and embrace of Indigenous Peoples and culture. God walks with Indigenous Peoples, and has always walked with Indigenous Peoples.

CSA Education Committee

Over the last two years, many of the educational events that the Core Working Group has provided have been done through zoom. Although the pandemic is still with us, we are now in a position to meet in person. To this end, the Core Working Group has re-established an educational committee to oversee, coordinate and arrange workshops and presentations on a variety of topics around clergy sexual abuse. Should you have any questions or would like to discuss potential opportunities, we would invite you to contact the education committee at csaeducation@archregina.sk.ca

TF326: Advent Retreat - Fostering A Contemplative Attitude Part 1

Keep awake and stay alert. These advent themes invite us to foster and develop what is known as a Contemplative Attitude - a particular way of being within the world that is 'highly tuned' to the presence of Christ in our midst. In this part one of a two-part Advent retreat, Deacon Eric reflects on this call to keep watch and how we might foster a contemplative attitude this Advent this week on Thinking Faith!

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"You, too, must be patient. Make your hearts firm because the coming of the Lord is at hand." James 5:8

Patience is another one of those things many of us struggle with. We want things to go according to our plan and our schedule; we like things to be convenient. Any change brings anxiety and fear. Through daily prayer, God reveals to us what He wants us to do with the gifts He has given us. We are able to better align ourselves with God's will and His plan, which is far better than anything we can come up with on our own.

BULLETIN BOARD

LESSON EIGHT Catechesis is the truth you wished you always knew!

How is the Catechism Organized? It is divided into four parts known as the “four pillars”. 1) the Creed (what the Church believes), 2) the Sacraments (what the Church celebrates), 3) the Commandments (what the Church lives), and 4) the Our Father (what the Church prays). It has 2,865 numbered paragraphs, with an internal cross-referencing system, making it simple to find all the passages in the Catechism on a specific subject. Additionally, the Catechism provides several indices for ease in locating particular passages. These are organized by themes with citations from Sacred Scripture, symbols of the faith, documents of councils, synods, pontiffs, canon law, liturgical texts and ecclesiastical authors.

St. Pope John Paul II: in his Apostolic Constitution promulgating the Catechism, he called them the “four movements of a great symphony.”

Last week we learned WHY God reveals himself, this week we ask:

How has God revealed Himself? Comment Dieu s'est-il révélé ?

3 Minute Catechism Video: archregina.sk.ca/group/catechetical-support-parishes/

Catechism Text: God reveals in stages through deeds & words, doctrine, faith and dogma. CCC#s 50-64, 84-100.

Sacred Scripture: Genesis 3.15, 12.2, Revelation 5 & 6, Romans 1.5, 2.6-7, 16.26, 2 Corinthians 10.5-6.

Further Reading: again, Dei Verbum 2: “the deepest truth about God and the salvation of man shines out for our sake in Christ, who is both the mediator and the fullness of all revelation”. Also see: §§7-10, 11-13, 21-26.
