To All Parishioners of Resurrection Parish,

Greetings as we enter this Holy Christmas season and ponder the meaning of the birth of our Lord into our world.

It seems the world is moving at an ever increasingly fast pace. Travel has steadily become more efficient, faster and more frequent (although recent long line ups at airports would seem to say otherwise). Information exchange and technological advances have accelerated at lightning speed. It can be disorienting as we try to make sense of things and stay grounded.

Though the pandemic seemed to slow the pace of things in many ways for a period of time, humanity continues to adapt and the world keeps relentlessly moving ahead with its heavy demands.

At this time of year our attention is drawn more toward the deeper meaning in our lives. We are drawn to think of our families. Whether we have the luxury of coming together physically or not, it's a time when we can take another step toward accepting each other and ourselves as we are, with all our respective warts. It is, famously and sadly, also a time of greatest loneliness for many. For some it is the first Christmas without a loved one with whom they shared many Christmases. For others it is a reminder of the brokenness of family ties and the dysfunction in relationships. For those in such difficult states, the sight of happy families can trigger a deeper loneliness.

Yet there is a longing and loneliness in every one of us that runs more deeply than anything a satisfying family gathering can achieve. As Ron Rolheiser points out, 'when we can accept an inevitable separateness, moral loneliness, and disappointment, we can begin to console each other in our friendships and marriages.'

In spite of all the brokenness and hurt in the world, which seems to be in our faces at every moment, can we focus on the good things and on our strengths, bring them to the surface, and say them out loud to ourselves and to each other?

Christmas can be a time when we renegotiate our own identity and the way we see each other.

Francis Bacon once said, 'Imagination was given to humanity to compensate for what we are not. A sense of humor was given to console us for what we are.'

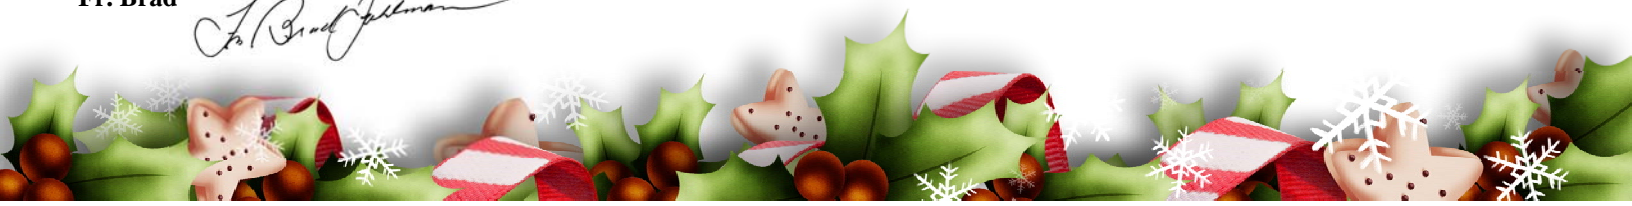

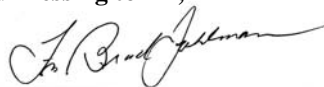

Remember also, Rudolph the red nosed reindeer came to be accepted for who he is. He never did get a nose job. We all have our weaknesses but we all have our strengths.

The infant Jesus grew up to reveal to our world that we have been claimed for a higher purpose. Life in this world is not a dead-end street but a gate way to eternity. Christ has revealed Himself to us as our strength, our guide, our Savior. He invites us to new possibilities in Him, with Him, and through Him. Ultimately what prospect could be more interesting and fruitful?

During these times we ponder what Jesus has offered the world. Richard Rohr articulates this as, 'a living example of fully embodied Love that emerged out of our ordinary, limited life situations; in other words, 'living in the limitations of weakness'. (Hebrews 4:15)

As your pastor, this will be my first Christmas with you, the people of Resurrection Parish. Many thanks to all of you (staff and parishioners) for your warm welcome. May the Lord strengthen each one of us in His Wisdom and Love. And may we continue to seek to become 'a people of His own who are zealous for good deeds.' (Titus 2:14)

Peace and Blessing to All,
Fr. Brad

MERRY CHRISTMAS FROM THE STAFF

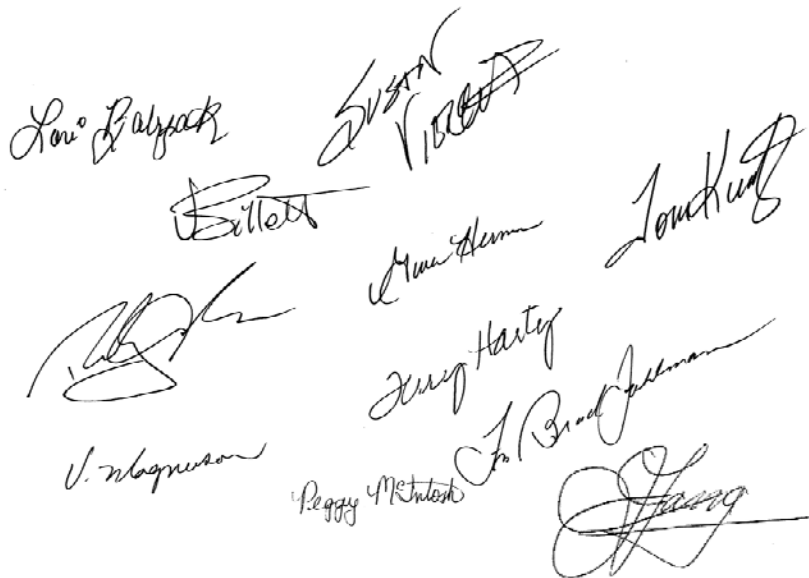

For to us a Child is born, to us a Son is given; and the Government shall be upon His shoulder, and His name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

We would like to take this opportunity to extend a Heartfelt Thank You for your continued incredible support of our parish and staff. We are extremely blessed for your encouragement and help through the continuing challenges and through all the wonderful ways in which we provide ministry to our parish community and beyond. We cannot do it without you!

We wish you all many blessings through this Holy Season and through the coming year!

Lois Balyack Susan V...
Billie Ann... Lou...
V. Magnuson Peggy McIntosh Fred Johnson

We would like to say a thank you to all who brought in cards, treats, and gifts for the staff to enjoy through Advent and Christmas!

This Christmas season the parishioners of Resurrection Parish provided and contributed to 50 family hampers. Together we also provided 24 seniors hampers.

The recipients of these hampers were thrilled and so grateful for the generosity of our parishioners. Thank you to everyone who participated in making the lives of so many brighter this Christmas season.

Thank You!

Dear Parishioners,

Our Home Care family would like to thank you for your continuous generosity.

Your contributions throughout the year provided clients with hygiene products, emergency food assistance, clothing needs, and many other essential needs.

Once again the beautiful seniors Christmas baskets brought joy to our seniors and staff. The clients are often unaware that they have been selected to receive a gift. So the surprise always brings a special reaction from each and every one of them. The holiday season isn't always easy for our clients who are often alone, so being a part of the delivery adds joy for the staff as well.

On behalf of our Home Care family we would like to thank you all and wish everyone a Happy and Healthy holiday season.

Forever thankful,
On behalf of our Home care Community.

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Synod Listening Session: “Enlarge the space of your tent” (Isaiah 54:2)

You are invited to join the Synod’s Continental Stage on Saturday, January 7 from 10 am to 12:30 pm as we gather to reflect on the “Document for the Continental Stage.” Come give your guidance and advice to the Archdiocese’s delegates who will be part of the North American Listening Sessions in January.

The document poses the following questions which we will explore together:

- which intuitions in the document resonate most strongly with the lived experiences and realities of the Church in North America? Which experiences are new, or illuminating to you?
- what substantial tensions or divergences emerge as particularly important in a North American perspective? Consequently, what are the questions or issues that should be addressed and considered in the next steps of the Synod process?
- what are the priorities, recurring themes and calls to action that can be shared with other local Churches around the world and discussed during the First Session of the Synodal Assembly in October 2023?

Please register in advance at bit.ly/Regina-Synod-Jan-7
Download and read the “Document for the Continental Stage” at bit.ly/Synod-DCS

“When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home.” Matthew 1:24

Putting our complete trust in the Lord without expecting anything in return. Striving to put God first in all things and follow Him wherever He may lead us. Joseph was a model of these pillars of our faith. As we prepare for the birth of our Lord, pray for the strength and courage to be a model of discipleship, just as Joseph was.

BULLETIN BOARD

LESSON NINE Live your best life! Live the best truth! Live your Catechism!

Is the Catechism just a list of dogma and doctrine?

No. The Catechism is a complete summary of the history and tradition of Church doctrine. The content is explained by relying strongly on Sacred Scripture; as well as, the Church Fathers, liturgical texts, the writings and lives of saints. The people who heard and saw the words and actions of saints and scholars, tells us of the Church's ongoing, living tradition. Dogma is a part of doctrine declared by the Magisterium (the church's teaching authority) as an infallible truth revealed by God. Doctrine is the full and complete teachings of the church. Dogmas and Doctrines are received from the Apostles, who gave it to bishops and bishops give it to the faithful. In very simple terms, there are 255 dogmas contained in doctrine. See CCC# 88 & 90.
