RCIA CORNER

At RCIA this week we looked at all the different parts of the Mass.

Simply, we know there are four parts:

1. The Introductory Rites
2. The Liturgy of the Word
3. The Liturgy of the Eucharist
4. The Concluding Rites

But underneath those simple words lies the foundation to how we are challenged to live each day.

At Mass, as we know, God welcomes us, speaks to us, feeds us and challenges us to be a true witness to the Gospel.

With so much given to us it is easy to forget that the point of Mass is for us to give and to worship, not for entertainment. Checkout what Fr. Mike Schmitz has to say about why we don't bring our coffee to Mass.

As people of God, we know that new beginnings are possible when we acknowledge the past, seek truth, and actively move towards reconciliation.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Join the Journey

EVENTS FROM OUR PARISH AND OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

The following is the Christmas Mass schedule for Resurrection Parish.

Christmas Eve, Friday December 24th – 7:00 pm and midnight.
Christmas Day, Saturday December 25th – 9:00 am and 11:00 am.
Sunday December 26th -- 9:00 am and 11:00 am

PLEASE NOTE: We expect the 7:00 pm Christmas Eve Mass to be very popular. For that reason, for the 7:00 pm Mass only, we will be using every pew in the church and attempting to accommodate as many attendees as possible. If you are uncomfortable being in closer proximity to others, you may want to consider attending another Mass. For all of the other Masses listed we will be using the seating configuration whereby every other pew is not used.

Also, for the safety of all, the current SHA regulations require that all those attending Mass must wear a proper fitting face-mask that covers their mouth, nose and chin.

The Resurrection Parish Christmas Eve 7:00 PM Mass will be live-streamed on the Resurrection Parish website.
Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve will be live-streamed from the Cathedral on the Archdiocese website.
On Christmas Day the 9:00 AM Mass will be live-streamed from Resurrection Parish on the Archdiocese website.

ARCHDIOCESE OF Regina
CELEBRATING AND SHARING GOD'S GIFTS THROUGH STEWARDSHIP

KAIROS Regina urges you:
Support ambitious climate action at Regina City Hall

The Renewable Regina motion of 2018 called for the city to be 100% renewable by 2050. To meet that goal, the city assembled a Community Advisory Group and brought in a consultant to help create an Energy and Sustainability Framework.

In a public forum in October, the consultant recommended making deep cuts in our carbon emissions, much sooner than 2050, to do our fair share to hold global warming to 1.5°C. This is a courageous recommendation, urging us to bring our city's targets up to date and into line with what's needed for climate justice.

As people of faith, our voice matters in discussions of justice. Here are three key points to consider when thinking about doing our fair share.

1) We in North America are responsible for a large share of historical emissions that are wreaking climate havoc right now.
2) We are in a better position than many communities around the world to make big moves quickly to reduce emissions from our buildings, transportation and local industry.
3) Even as atmospheric rivers flood Canada's east and west coasts, many parts of the world have already suffered far greater losses from tropical storms, sea level rise, and severe droughts, and will continue to suffer worse as climate change intensifies.

The Energy and Sustainability Framework will be released to the public in January. Now is the time, as the report is being finalized, to tell city council to act with the same courage that the consultant has shown. Please contact your councillor as soon as possible and tell them you support a 1.5°C target for the Framework.

Resources:

Your most effective action is to email your councillor: https://www.regina.ca/about-regina/contact-us/contact-councillor/

Or scan this QR code to use a pre-drafted template from the citizens' group, Regina Energy Transition, that addresses the 1.5°C target as well as promoting four quick policy actions. https://bit.ly/RETCouncilEmail

Find your council ward on this map:
https://www.regina.ca/city-government/city-council/wards/

The City of Regina website has a project page where you can learn more, and also sign up (see box at upper right) for project updates: https://beheard.regina.ca/energy-sustainability-framework You may wish to watch these updates for an opportunity to make a presentation to Council (now through the Executive Committee), urging them to adopt the Framework.

Archdiocese of Regina
Bulletin
December 5, 2021
Second Sunday of Advent

Synodality – Does my voice matter?

Fundamentally, synodality is about journeying together. Your voice is important to hear and discern what the Holy Spirit is saying to our local Church. More importantly, your participation in listening and discerning the Holy Spirit's action is important for building a culture of synodality in our Archdiocese for the long term.

In the document (called Vademecum) released before a synod to prepare participants, Pope Francis writes that the primary question for this synod is, "How does this "journeying together" take place today on different levels (from the local level to the universal one), allowing the Church to proclaim the Gospel? and what steps is the Spirit inviting us to take in order to grow as a synodal Church? (PD, 2)" (VD 1.3)

Over the next 6 months, the Archdiocese of Regina will be listening to its people to hear, honestly and charitably, about how we listen and journey with one another at the familial, parish, and diocesan level. We will also be listening to discern ways that the Holy Spirit is calling it to grow in a spirit of "journeying together," attentive to the direction of the Holy Spirit speaking through all its members and in the signs of the times.

In some synods, the questions focus on a particular challenge or topic (eg. Youth, Eucharist, New Evangelization) and the work of the synod is primarily done in preparation to or during the assembly of the synod. This synod is different. The diocesan phase will take place over the next 5-6 months, but the most important work remains in continuing and growing a culture of synodality in our local Church. Your participation helps us to continue listening and discerning; to become more fully a people who are "journeying together" in the Holy Spirit.

For more information on synodality, see: https://archregina.sk.ca/synod-2021-2023

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value…" (Philippians 1:9-10)

During the Christmas shopping season it is easy to get caught up in the frenzy of buying gifts. But, is that "gift" truly an expression of your love for the other person. Or, are you just fulfilling your "obligation" to give them something? To grow in friendship with someone, you need to spend time with them, learn what is of value to them. Maybe this year, buy less "stuff" and spend more time with those you love.

Journey Through Advent 2021

CCCB Journey Through Advent Table Grace

Creator God, we acknowledge the truth. The system of Indian Residential schools separated children from the affection of their families and from their Indigenous ways. Many Indigenous people still hurt today. Creator God, send your Son to heal and to make us more compassionate. Help Pope Francis to receive the Indigenous delegates with gentleness, understanding, and a desire to help in the healing of Indigenous peoples. Remembering that many Indigenous children often went to bed hungry, we thank you for this food. Give us a desire to share.

Come, Lord Jesus! Amen.

On this path of walking together with Indigenous Peoples, may we hear the call to pray and to act in ways that will fill the valleys of sorrow and suffering and make low the mountains of inequality and injustice.

Lord, hear our prayer.

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...') - Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee

Did You Know…. Treaty 4 Land Acknowledgement.

"We (I) acknowledge that we are on Treaty 4 Territory, traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak (Cree), Nahkawé (Saulteaux) and Nakota and homeland of the Métis, Dakota and Lakota."

When Canada (British Crown) wanted to access the land in what is now western Canada, they negotiated the Numbered Treaties 1 – 11 with First Nations who held their traditional lands on the prairies. The Nêhiyawak, Nahkawê, and Nakota Nations had traditional lands in what is now Treaty 4 Territory. Therefore, when Canada (British Crown) wanted to access the lands in this area, they had to make treaty with Nêhiyawak, Nahkawe and Nakota Nations.

The Dakota, Lakota and Métis did not have traditional lands in this area when Treaty 4 was made, however, a number of Dakota, Lakota and Métis people were settled on these lands prior to and at the time Treaty 4 was made September 15, 1874, therefore, we acknowledge Treaty 4 as their homeland. Prior to Treaty 4, anyone who wished to settle on a territory held by a First Nation, they were required to have the consent of that First Nation. This is the Natural Law of Respect given to First Nations by the Creator.

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota,
