CPCS Workshop: A Victim-Centred Approach: Best Practices for Accompaniment, Reducing Re-Victimization and Dealing with a Legacy of Clergy Sexual Abuse

March 4, 2022

8:00 AM - 3:00 PM CST

Online – Zoom

Speakers: Pamela Walsh, Teresa Whalen Lux, Fr. Bradford Fahlman, Archbishop Donald Bolen

Over the last five years the Archdiocese of Regina has embarked on a progressive dialogue with victims of clergy sexual abuse in an on-going effort to change the way those who were abused were treated. In this workshop the Archdiocesan Core Working Group members will share and discuss the best practices that have led to practical and tangible ways to provide a victim-centred approach that helps people impacted by the legacy of clergy sexual abuse and works to educate non-victims. Topics addressed include a victim sharing how abuse impacted her life, transparency, and accountability from a victim's perspective, accompanying and reaching out to victims, and educational and parish resources, all aimed at reducing re-victimization and initiating a change of culture around the exercise of authority.

*Please note that the sessions will be recorded and shared with registered participants. The registration fee for the general public is $50.00

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

*“A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit.”
(Luke 6:43)*

Are you using your gifts in the way God intended? Have you asked God how He would like you to use them? Do you compare yourself to others and complain about what you don't have instead of being thankful for what you do have? God gives each of us unique gifts and a unique plan. Listen to how God is calling you to use your gifts, to bear good fruit, for the glory of His name.

Faith, Grief, and COVID-19: Virtual Series

The wide variety of losses associated with the COVID-19 pandemic has generated grief in all of our lives. How do we, as Christians, navigate this time of upheaval and loss? Where can we find hope?

Over the course of four one-hour virtual gatherings, from March 16 - April 7, The Archdiocese of Regina, and Emmaus Family Support Ministries invite participants to gather from 7 pm-8 pm each week. We will share a short series of films by a panel of mental health and faith experts and engage in discussion, reflection, and prayer.

Registration is free, but space is limited. Register at <https://archregina.flocknote.com/signup/83149>. A link to the virtual sessions will be shared with registrants on the day of each session. For more information, contact Deacon Eric Gurash at emmausmentalhealth@gmail.com.

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means ‘the word’ or ‘as it is said...’)

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee

Did you know that... in the latter 19th and early 20th centuries it was commonly thought that diseases like tuberculosis, measles, whooping cough, and influenza were hereditary among First Nation people. All these diseases were brought here by the newcomers. Rates that were as much as twenty times that of neighbouring settler communities Whereas, in actual fact, the causes were driven by malnourishment and overcrowded living conditions in housing on the reserves and in residential schools.

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.

Why the Synod Matters to Me?

Synod 2021-2023 is an invitation to our global community to share experiences, joys, graces, and challenges of walking together with the Church and the Church walking with us. The Archdiocese of Regina invites you to participate in an exciting video project aimed at sharing your hopes and dreams around taking part in the greatest listening project in human history. Participation is simple; use your smartphone to record a 30-60sec video clip of yourself answering "Why the Synod matters to me?". Be sure to film in landscape mode only (phone should be horizontal while recording) and that there are no bright lights behind you to ensure a quality shot. Submission deadline is noon on Friday, March 11. Please submit your clips to synod@archregina.sk.ca
