Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

The 2025 theme of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (WPCU), prepared by the monastic community of Bose in Northern Italy, "Do you believe this?" (John 11:26), takes its cue from the dialogue between Jesus and Martha when Jesus visited the home of Martha and Mary in Bethany following the death of their brother Lazarus, as narrated by the evangelist John. As 2025 marks the 1700th anniversary of the first Christian Ecumenical Council of Nicaea, Christians around the world are called to witness together to this faith in the resurrection, which is for us the source of hope and joy, to be shared with all peoples.

The sacraments are of great importance to Catholics. They are considered divine channels of grace, imparting God's life into our souls. The seven sacraments help Catholics live in harmony with God's will from birth to death. They are meeting points with God, providing love, healing, forgiveness, nourishment, and strengthening. The sacraments are not mere traditions; they have the power to bring heaven to earth and allow humanity and eternity to commingle. They are instituted by Christ Himself and are essential for our sanctification.

Bulletin

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Here Comes Nicaea 2025:

2025 De Margerie Lectures on Christian Reconciliation and Unity

Rev. Dr. Sandra Beardsall is an ordained minister in the United Church of Canada. She was Professor of Church History and Ecumenics at St Andrew's College, Saskatoon for 24 years. Her research and writing brought together historical, pastoral, and ecumenical concerns in the service of ministry, ecclesiology, and the search for Christian unity, with a special concern for local ecumenism.

Here Comes Nicaea 2025: Are we Ready for Visible Unity?

Wednesday, January 22, 2025

7:00 pm, St. Thomas More College, 1437 College Drive, Saskatoon
The goal of "visible unity" lies at the heart of ecumenical endeavour. It animated the Council of Nicaea, and it continues to engage Christians today. Can we agree on what it means? Are we ready to embrace it? What would it take? And would the visible unity of Christians make a difference – in our churches, and in the world?

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"To each individual the manifold station of the Spirit is given for some benefit."
- 1 Corinthians 12:7 St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charisms (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.
