Come, Holy Spirit

Fill the hearts of your faithful people and fill them once again with the seven-fold gift of your presence.

Give them the gift of wisdom so that they can see with your eyes, hear with your ears, think with your mind, feel with your heart.

Give them the gift of understanding so that they can experience and judge life from the point of view of other people.

Give them the gift of counsel so that they can share the story of their faith and thereby strengthen their fellow parishioners.

Give them the gift of fortitude so that they may stick to the task of living their faith and sharing the Gospel whether convenient or inconvenient.

Give them the gift of knowledge so that they can read the signs of the times and figure out how to respond in faith.

Give them the gift of piety so that they can be true friends with you whether in prayer or in a good moral life.

Give them the gift of fear of the Lord so that they can respond to your presence in church, at home, and on the street.

THE MARIAN CENTRE

The Marian Centre is very grateful for all the support it has received towards its bagged lunch program during these past two years. Many of you generously provided the home baking, and other items, for these lunches. On June 6th our needs will change somewhat, as we are intending to re-open our dining room, and resume serving hot meals. We will exercise appropriate cautionary protocols, as we realize the pandemic is not yet behind us. Although our need for it has lessened (we are no longer looking for 1300 muffins each week!) we will still welcome home baking. We are also very grateful for your prayers as well, as we begin this re-opening.

If you have one (or more) of our small hand sanitizer bottles at home; please return them to us so that we can refill and re-use them.

 PLEASE NOTE: Due to a function in the Resurrection Parish hall, the hall will be unavailable for the Saturday 5 pm Mass this Saturday, June 4th. Seating in the church will still be in every second pew, so space may be limited.

RCIA Journey

While for most, Pentecost Sunday marks the end to the Easter Season, for us it also marks the end to our RCIA journey.

But as it is said, with every ending is a new beginning and today is no exception.

As our time to gather for RCIA concludes, we are ready for our new beginning. As Neophytes filled with the Holy Spirit, we are ready to respond to the Great Commission given to us by Jesus.

As the current sessions for RCIA conclude, we look forward to a new beginning in the fall, journeying with everyone interested in discerning their decision to join the Catholic church and those interested in supporting the journey.

At your choice, RCIA provides an opportunity for a new beginning to your current way of life. What are you ready to put to an end?

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program Mission-Discipleship-Service-Faith

"I see how graduates from the program have become more involved in the life of the parish: be it on pastoral council or one of the committees such as liturgy or social justice, etc. I have witnessed their faith grow from before they entered to the time of their graduation and how they become more in tune with their faith. In many ways you can see how they have fallen in love with the Lord and with his Church." - Fr. Stephen Bill, Christ the King, Regina.

One weekend per month from October until June, Catholics who want to know, love and serve Christ more deeply come together at Campion College in Regina. Are you ready to fall more deeply in love with Jesus Christ and his Church?

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (John 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your head, heart and mind affect your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.

From Fear to Love:

Spiritual Grounding in Anxious Times from the Henry Nouwen Society

We live in trying times. Wars, mass shootings, climate change, political and economic polarization, hate crimes... and a pandemic that just won't go away! Add to this the stack of personal burdens that so many endure on a daily basis. Despite the unbelievable advances in almost every area of life, advances our grandparents would be hard-pressed to even imagine, life is unavoidably anxious, stressful, and unpredictable.

Something to make things better...

Admittedly, we can't do much to change the ways of the world, but we can offer an amazing new series of five practical and profound meditational videos that will help anchor and sustain you during these difficult days.

Beginning July 16, the Henri Nouwen Society is delighted to present From Fear to Love: Spiritual Grounding in Anxious Times with Rev. Marjorie J. Thompson.

Every week for five weeks, we will introduce a FREE new video on our HNS YouTube channel. Each video is designed to offer you insights and practices on how to enrich, deepen, and strengthen your spiritual life, and how to better cope with the stresses that threaten to erode your physical, mental, and spiritual wellbeing.

An invaluable and much-needed resource for these challenging times!

There will be support materials to accompany these videos available as FREE PDF downloads. To access these materials, you will need to register at Eventbrite: eventbrite.ca/e/from-fear-to-love-spiritual-grounding-in-anxious-times-tickets-344185206217

TF299: Saints and Mental Health: St. Raphael, Remedy of God

Our monthly series on the Saints and Mental health continues as Deacon Eric Gurash reflects on Archangel, St. Raphael, and his role not just as a healer of physical ailments, but as a powerful intercessor and companion in times of serious grief and emotional distress.

Show Snippet: "The story of Tobit and his family reminds us that these answered prayers often come in surprising, disguised ways. A coworker or friend, a bit of scripture or song heard at a time of great need, or, as with Raphael, a lonely traveler, a stranger...all may be secret encounters with the divine reaching out to give answer to the deep need of our hearts."

Did you know... "The pipe is a sacred object among First Nations' people. The pipe is a means of communication with the Creator... An individual who has been gifted with a Pipe is referred to as a Pipe carrier. Respect, self-discipline, and humility are needed to be a carrier of the Pipe. If you use the Pipe, you must worship in truth; you have to answer for those things that may not be right."

Love in the Kitchen: A Recipe for Holiness

This Corpus Christi weekend, June 18-19, cook a meal live alongside celebrity chef Fr. Leo Patalinghug and ask author Rita Heikenfeld a question about biblical foods. Through the insights of 20+ renowned Catholic speakers, you'll discover why our Catholic faith should have a place at every meal. Register today at chaliceevents.org/love-in-the-kitchen.
