Jesus predicted that the Jerusalem Temple, beautiful as it was, would be destroyed. He then went on to speak of wider turmoil among the nations, throughout the natural world, and in the heavens. But before the end, the Day of the Lord, which will bring judgment on evil and healing to the faithful, there will be a long period which will be marked by rejection, persecution, and even execution for faith in Christ. However, he urged perseverance to secure our eternal life.

St. Paul wrote to tell us in this waiting period, we should carry on our daily tasks and work, taking responsibility to support ourselves. That keeps disorder out of the Christian community, and leads us to a quiet yet active life of faith in which we share our time, talent, and treasure to serve Christ and his Church.

Archdiocese of Regina Weekly Report

With the closure of the Prairie Messenger the Church in Saskatchewan lost a key vehicle for telling the faith stories of our people, sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ, and communicating events of importance and interest to our parishes.

As a means of replacing some of what was lost, the Archdiocese of Regina is very excited to announce its new Weekly Report email news service. Each Friday, subscribers to this weekly report receive highlights of stories unique to our prairie Church, important parish and diocesan events and important and inspiring stories of national and international interest. Subscribing easy. Go to www.archregina.sk.ca/news or use the camera on your phone to scan the QR code beside this article.

A quick scroll will take you to a simple online form asking for your email address, name and the name of your parish. Once you hit subscribe, you will begin receiving weekly updates on stories and events from around our Archdiocese, Canada, and around the world each week.

Thank you for helping us share the Good News of Jesus Christ!

RCIACORNER

Rite of Acceptance and Welcome

This week-end we welcomed the RCIA Inquirers to take the next step on their journey.

Inquirers who have not been baptized, celebrated the Rite of Acceptance confirming they are ready to more fully embrace the Gospel Message and prepare for the sacraments at Easter. They are now known as Catechumens.

Inquirers who have been baptized, celebrated the Rite of Welcome confirming they are ready to continue seeking full communion with the Catholic Church and prepare for the sacraments at Easter. They are now known as Candidates.

We hope you were able to join us for coffee and cake. As a parish community we are all now committed to praying for the Catechumens and Candidates as they continue on their journey. Please be sure to take the time to introduce yourself in the coming weeks.

As part of the Rite, each of the Inquirers made a specific request of you – God's Church. Watch for next week-end's bulletin and learn a bit more about each of the Catechumens and Candidates, what they are asking of you and how you can respond!

REMINDER: A great opportunity to meet us is to come out on Wednesday November 27 and make an Advent Wreath, learn about the Liturgical Year!! Wreath kits are available for $25. There are limited supplies, so you are encouraged to pre-register at the Welcome Desk to confirm a kit will be available for you. (If you have one already, maybe consider making one as a gift!)

RCSD Distinguished Alumni Nominations

The Regina Catholic School Division theme is, "Let Your Light Shine." This theme is based on Matthew 5:16, which says, "In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven." We believe our alumni are doing good works, letting their lights shine before all the world, and giving glory to our Father in heaven. Because we feel so strongly that our alumni are following Matthew's gospel, we want to recognize those who are outstanding representatives of Regina Catholic Schools. Do you know a graduate of our school division who is letting their light shine boldly? We invite you to nominate them. We are accepting nominations now; the deadline for nominations is Monday, November 25, 2019. More details and nomination forms are online now at www.rcsd.ca/Board/DistinguishedAlumni. Thank you for helping us identify those who are spreading the word of God beyond the halls of our schools.

TF165: Film, Literature, and Faith with Guest Patrick Malone - Part 1

With nearly $180 billion spent on film and literature around the world in the past year, it's easy to see how deeply ingrained the desire for story and narrative is in the human heart. In the midst of all the conversation around the favorite films of friends and family, what might our Catholic faith have to contribute? We're talking film, literature, and faith this week on Thinking Faith! <http://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/tf165-film-literature-and-faith-with-guest-patrick-malone-part-1>

We all know that what we have are the means and opportunities to prepare for that day Christ comes in glory at the end time. May God's grace of wisdom fill us to share what we have with the less fortunate through our support of the Archbishop's Appeal.
