Church Cycles and RCIA

This week we learned about the Liturgical year, the seasons of the church, the colors, scents and reading cycles, all with a particular focus on Advent which starts next Sunday. We heard how the church year, like the calendar year has a cadence and flow which repeats every 12 months.

RCIA, like the church year also has a cycle and cadence. The timing of the RCIA cycle belongs to the candidate as they journey at a pace that aligns to their discernment on the decision to join the Catholic Church

This week-end, at the 5:00 Saturday Mass the RCIA Candidates celebrated the Rite of Welcome. During the Rite, Father Rick asked each Candidate what they ask of us, the church.

To learn more about who celebrated and what they are asking you, look for the insert in today's bulletin. Please let us know you have heard the requests by responding on the RCIA Prayer Sheet found on the RCIA Bulletin Board.

At RCIA there is a place for everyone!

Dn. 7: 13-14; Rev. 1:5-8; Jn. 18: 33-37

Today we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. A king unlike all others. There is no rule with an iron fist, no wars, no distinction based on ability, there are none doing without while others have excess. No, Christ's Kingdom would not be recognized if compared with those on earth. The readings show how Christ's crowning and return to gather his Kingdom was told from time of old by the prophets.

In the gospel reading today Jesus tries to explain to Pilate that, "His Kingdom is not of this world." Jesus tries to give him an example of how Pilate should be able to tell this when He said, "if my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews." He could have continued with other differences between His Kingdom and the worlds kingdoms; everyone is treated with love regardless of their abilities, everyone is loved because they are a child of God, all God's gifts are shared equally, all are relying on God and resting in His peace continuing the work to bring all to God, to Christ and grow His Kingdom.

Jesus goes on to explain, "I came into the world to testify the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." Jesus has told us to love one another as ourselves, share our material gifts from God with those in need, love and respect every person we meet regardless of their abilities, help were God leads us.

If we belong to the truth (Christ's Kingdom), He tells us, we know His voice. Am I following Christ's voice?

What is Synodality?

The Greek word synodos means “to be on the journey together.” The Second Vatican Council speaks of the People of God (Pope, bishops, clergy, men and women religious and lay men and women) as being on a journey toward the heavenly Jerusalem. They walk together, exercising the gifts of their Baptism each in their particular roles. Along the way, they speak and listen to one another and to the Holy Spirit as they work to carry out their mission: to make known the Good News of salvation in Jesus Christ. In Acts 15, we see that at the Council of Jerusalem the apostles and the People of God considered, discussed and debated the issues that faced the early Church. They reached a consensus after consulting with the Holy Spirit and one another. They journeyed together. Synodality is a way of journeying together - of living out our faith - that calls for shared responsibility, open and honest dialogue, and discernment with the Holy Spirit to arrive at pastoral solutions to the issues of our day.

What are we being asked to do?

The people of the Archdiocese of Regina, with dioceses and Christian communities around the world, are being asked to speak and to listen about one main theme: A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, “journeys together:”

- How is this “journeying together” happening today in your particular Church, in your parish?
- What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our “journeying together”?

Plans are underway to give parishes, organizations, as many individuals as possible the opportunity to respond to this theme over the next several months. Look for more information in your Parish Bulletin, in Archdiocesan communications and on the diocesan website:

An Overview of the CCCB Truth and Reconciliation Journey in Solidarity with the Indigenous Delegation Going to Rome

From December 17th to 20th, an Indigenous delegation will be going to meet Pope Francis in Rome. Its aim is to create meaningful encounters of dialogue and healing, and to prepare the Pope for his pastoral visit to Canada. As you know, in late September the Catholic Bishops of Canada offered an unequivocal apology to Indigenous Peoples, which provides a context for the forthcoming trip to Rome as a step towards reconciliation.

Like our own process of the sacrament of reconciliation, we begin by acknowledging the truths of where and how we as Catholics have been the source of deep pain and wounds; what we have done and what we have failed to do. Pope Francis will have an opportunity to hear about the effects of colonization, the signing and breaking of treaties, the legacy of residential schools, and intergenerational trauma. Many of the stories he will hear will touch these painful truths, and that is an essential step towards healing that will lead to a meaningful encounter and relationship building.

Let us be in solidarity with this Indigenous delegation and the efforts of the Canadian Church as it takes steps on this healing and reconciling journey. Truth, new beginnings and right relationships pave the way towards Reconciliation.

Let us embark on this journey following the movement of the Advent liturgical cycle, beginning with the feast of Christ the King, by entering into the five stage process of the sacrament of reconciliation: examine, confession, repentance, reparation and reconciliation.

“Jesus answered, ‘My kingdom does not belong to this world.’ (John 18:36)

*Life is short. How much time, energy and money do you put into building “your” kingdom here on earth? We all know we can’t take it with us. The real kingdom is in the next life. Yet, how much time, energy and money do you invest in working for that eternal kingdom? Ask God for His guidance. Detach from earthly possessions.
