Women's Faith Formation

"They devoted themselves to the apostles teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer"

Acts 2:42

Women's Faith Formation provides an opportunity for women to gather for fellowship, community and involvement in our parish life. Faith studies, testimonials, inspirational videos and prayer inspire and encourage our discussion and develop our deep and loving relationship with God.

We welcome all women to join us for this opportunity to grow in your Catholic faith. This is a casual event and requires no commitment outside of our meetings. You are also welcome to drop in for one of our meetings or attend them all.

We meet at Resurrection Parish on Saturday morning from 9:30 to 11:00 AM on November 27

If you would like to attend, have further questions or simply want to be part of our email list to learn about upcoming events please contact Charlene at chargraham111@gmail.com.

May these all the faith departed rest in peace

Why did Jesus die?

Stated simply, Jesus died to gain us forgiveness for our sins.

When He was sent to us, Jesus knew He would die and He knew how, but He came anyway. He did just as His Father asked.

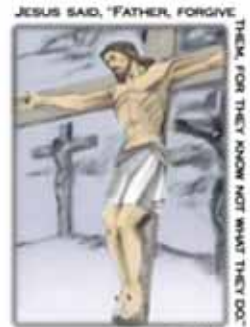

By comparison His Father, our Father, asks very little of us and repeatedly forgives us through the Sacrament of Reconciliation when we fail.

This week's reflection: What do you expect of others?
How willingly do you forgive?
What are you willing to sacrifice?

The Marian Centre continues to serve it's lunch meals as a carry out and to respond to requests for clothing, personal hygiene and other items at the door. Sadly, our hoped for re-opening of our dining room is once again delayed for the foreseeable future because of the Covid pandemic. We continue to be very grateful for muffins, cookies, snacks and other items

Let's listen to the voices of our brothers and sisters fighting for their right to a healthy environment

World leaders have gathered for the 26th UN Climate Change Conference of the Parties (COP26). Although these powerful decision-makers are debating the future of the planet, they are probably too far removed from the realities of its most vulnerable people. It is up to us to hear and amplify the voices of those who are defending their rights and the environment against economic ravage.

Medarda Hernandez, whose community in Honduras has been repeatedly harmed by large industrial projects, including supposedly "green" projects, says, "if other extractivist projects start in our community, we are not going to let them pass. I ask the international community to come to our aid, because we are really suffering from this situation."

So that people like Medarda do not go unheard, let's make Canadian companies operating abroad responsible for protecting human and environmental rights. Join Development and Peace's People and Planet First campaign to make this happen. Visit <https://devp.org/en> to learn more.

Deut 6:2-6 | Heb 7:23-28 | Mk 12:28-34

Our attention in Mark's gospel is drawn to the interaction between Jesus and a scribe, well-versed in scripture, who comes near to Jesus to ask "Which commandment is the first of all". Jesus begins his answer by reiterating the expression of faith integral to the covenantal relationship of the people of Israel with God. Bringing full expression to the potential and promise within the words of Moses found in Deuteronomy, Jesus deepens our understanding by extending the law to include that complete love for God into our encounter with our neighbour. Through this inclusion, the intention of all scripture finds fulfillment and the essence of the law is fully expressed. Jesus proclaims in both word and action this commandment of love, to the point of his definitive sacrifice on the cross for our eternal salvation and invites us as his followers to a conversion of heart from which we respond with a new mode of living.

The call to love one another, to promote justice and equity within our society, challenges those priorities and values which seem so prevalent in our world and are often counter to Christ's teaching. We are called to respond generously and to selflessly offer ourselves and our talents towards the service of one another through our positive and loving actions in our daily lives. Catholic Social Teaching is driven by the fundamental principle that each person is the clearest reflection of God among us and we share a special relationship with each other as being created by God, redeemed by Christ and called to communion with God (Pastoral Constitution of the Church in the Modern World). Through your contribution to the Archbishop's Appeal we as a diocese can continue to respond to the Holy Spirit through the work of social justice and make meaningful difference in the world around us. So, let us not only come near to the Kingdom of God. Let us as followers of Christ intentionally and diligently enter fully. Let us allow the love of God to change us and to flow through us in serviceable love.

KNIGHTS CORNER

Resurrection Council Knights of Columbus have resumed Zoom Executive meetings on the second Tuesday of the Month. Regular membership meetings have been on hold for the meantime because of the Covid-19 situation.

These awards were in recognition for the contribution by our members in the remodelling of Archbishop Donald Bolen's house. Under the leadership of Anthony Gartner, volunteers not only from our council but also from other local Knights councils together with donations from several suppliers and building trades enabled the successful completion of this project.

Our Council is carrying a few fundraising activities: Grey Cup Pool tickets, and Sarcan Drop and Go bottle return.

The Knights are placing barrels at the church entrance for the collection of winter clothing for distribution to several organizations.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices." (Mark 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

Archbishop's Appeal

The blind man showed not only that he had great faith in the ability of Jesus to give him sight but it also showed his willingness to persevere even when others told him to be quiet. God calls us to trust in Him in all things. He calls us to be vocal about our faith even when others want to silence us. The great faith the blind man showed resulted in a great reward. He got his sight. It did not end there because he showed his gratitude by following Jesus. We often forget to do that. We need to express our gratitude to God for all he does for us whether it be small things or big things.

The Archbishop's Appeal provides support to a wide variety of community outreach programs such as Catholic Family Services, Native Ministry and Visitation House to name a few. These programs assist people in the community who need a variety of supports. By providing them help we can live what Jesus taught us about helping each other. Your support for the Appeal means the Archdiocese can continue to run the programs and make life a little better for our brothers and sisters.

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.

TF268: Vaccine Mandates and Exemptions with Melissa Moschella - Part 1

This week Dr. Brett Salkeld sits down with Dr. Melissa Moschella, moral philosopher at the Catholic University of America for a three-part series discussing vaccine mandates and exemptions from a Catholic perspective.

Show Snippet: "It doesn't really make sense for an authority of the Catholic Church to be able to sign off on an exemption that says 'the Catholic Church forbids me to do X...when, in fact, the Catholic Church does not forbid you.'" <https://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/vaccine-mandates-and-exemptions-with-melissa-moschella-part-1>

Exploring our Sacred Texts: A conversation about stewarding our common life

All are invited to join this online series with Jewish, Christian, and Muslim panelists to discuss the scriptural sources for understanding generosity, hospitality, and compassion. Thursdays, October 28, and November 4 at 3:00 PM.

•Rabbi Jeremy Parnes is the spiritual leader of Beth Jacob Synagogue in Regina. His long involvement in multifaith and community organizations includes Regina Multifaith Forum, Habitat for Humanity, numerous City of Regina committees on social housing and homelessness, and several inner-city boards, including Youth Connexions and The Boys and Girls Clubs of Canada.

•Rev. Amanda Currie has been minister of First Presbyterian Church in Regina since 2017. She previously ministered in Saskatoon for 14 years and has recently completed a two-year term as Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. She is vice president of the Canadian Council of Churches, where she has served on the Governing Board for the past 7 years. She has convened the Ecumenical & Interfaith Committee of the Presbyterian Church and is active in numerous national and local ecumenical and interfaith initiatives.

•Imam Dr. Mohamed Masloh is the leader of the Islamic Association of Saskatchewan in Regina, an RCMP chaplain, and a teaching assistant at the University of Regina. He studied at the prestigious Al-Azhar University in Cairo and the Graduate Theological Foundation in Indiana, where he earned a Ph.D. in Islamic Studies. In these days of increased social polarization and intolerance, where racism, antisemitism, and Islamophobia appear to be increasing daily, dialogue between faith communities is an antidote to ignorance and hatred. Generosity, hospitality, and compassion are social virtues that can heal the wounds of our society. Register in advance for this series: <https://bit.ly/3iwypfm> For further information, contact Archdeacon Cheryl Toth at stewardship@sasktel.net This webinar is planned in the spirit of the LAURC Covenant by the Ecumenical Stewardship Committee of the Anglican Diocese of Qu'Appelle, the Saskatchewan Synod of the ELCIC, and the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Regina.
