MASS TIMES

Welcome

The 2019 Archbishop's Appeal campaign launch is coming soon!

"If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." (Luke 17:6).

Most of us are aware that a mustard seed is incredibly small; in fact, it was one of the smallest seeds known in the world. The mulberry tree, on the other hand, was known to have a vast and large network of roots which spread far out from the trunk of the tree. Jesus' point is that faith cannot be measured by size or depth. It is as if He is saying that the key is quality, not quantity. It is not the size of one's faith, but its presence, and the willingness of each person to rely on that faith in trying times. One of the most important facets of a disciple's life is trust in God. It is that trust, a trust built on faith, which gives us the strength to follow lives of responsibility and service. What Jesus is saying at the end of today's Gospel, "...we have done only what we ought to have done," is that service is a privilege – a gift of God's love and mercy, not a burden.

Choose Life: For The Unborn and Those Their Lives Affect - We are all formed in the image and likeness of our God (Gen 1:26-27), and no political party, cultural understanding, or activist group can remove that from us. The Church upholds this teaching for all people. We are commissioned to uphold the dignity of each and every person. When we leave Mass the priest or deacon will tell us to, "go in the peace of Christ, proclaiming the Gospel with our lives!" To this we exclaim, "Thanks be to God!" We are called to live in a way that affirms and proclaims the infinite value of each and every person. Living in the promise of the Easter story – out of death comes new life – we can journey alongside those facing unwanted pregnancy, especially those pregnancies that resulted from acts of violence. As the Body of Christ, we are pained when such terrible acts happen. This fact does not remove the innumerable worth of that new life. The way in which a life is created does not determine their value. Their dignity and love are infinite and unchanging, though sometimes it can be hard for us to see that.

Choosing life for the unborn calls us to safeguard the dignity of those who, through a loss of their own dignity, are put into a position where abortion seems like the best or only option for them. The Church calls us to be builders of God's Kingdom here on earth. In such a Kingdom, rape, incest, unjust medical and economic systems, among many other factors would not exist therefore no one would feel that abortion was the best or only option for them. If we want to protect the unborn we need to simultaneously work towards protecting the dignity of all of those affected by the lives of the unborn as well.

It's getting to be that time of year again. Resurrection Parish is once again looking for donations of (nut-free) candy to help out with our Halloween festivities in the hall on the evening or Oct. 31st. Please drop donations off at the office or at the Welcome Desk after any of the Masses.

RCIA CORNER

RCIA Sessions start this week.

Our first meeting will be a "Come and See" format. Come out to this session, hear what RCIA will entail this year and meet the team and others interested in journeying this year.

If you are interested in discerning your decision to join the Catholic Church or journeying with someone as their sponsor while they discern, October 9 at 7:00 in Room 2 is the place for you!

Pre-registration is not required but would be appreciated. You can pre-register by contacting Danica Love at (306) 789-7628 or by emailing rcia@resurrectionparish.ca

YOUTH MINISTRY HELP NEEDED

Investing in today's youth is necessary in growing the body of Christ. Teaching them to grow in their relationship with God prepares them to serve Christ in all they do which nurtures their relationship with Christ, the congregation and allows the church to flourish. We are looking for people to help with our various youth programs. It is up to all of us to support the youth of our parish! To find out how you can help, please leave your name and contact information at the Welcome and Information desk

Knights of Columbus - Winter Clothes Collection - The Knights of Columbus are collecting gently used (or new) winter clothing (items in need are coats, mitts, toques, scarves, boots, etc.) for distribution to local schools and other venues. Please drop them off in the boxes provided in the gathering space. If possible wash or clean the articles prior to drop off and mark the bags as such. Your gift of love and warmth will be greatly appreciated by others this winter.

OCTOBER – REVERENCE FOR LIFE MONTH

Greetings everyone! We are called by our Arch-bishop to set aside the month of October pondering and promoting life in all its stages from conception to natural death. The four pillars of reverencing life are 1. the unborn 2. the poor 3. Victims of Violence 4. The Elderly, Sick and Dying. We will be saying a decade of the rosary and the St. Michael prayer before all the Masses in October for those various intentions. We will also be collecting for the Santa Maria Nursing Home to support their spiritual program. Check the website of the Archdiocese and follow Rev. for Life links to articles by Dr. Brett Salkeld.

Thanks for your support and caring. God bless, Rev. for Life Committee!

On Oct. 12-13, 2019 please welcome Deacon Stan Kroetsch who will speak about CHALICE - a Canadian, Catholic sponsorship program. He will explain how you can help a destitute child at one of 56 mission sites in 15 developing countries. The website is www.chalise.ca

Mission Sunday Sunday, October 6, 2019

“Go! Make disciples of all nations.” (Mt 28:19) These words—the imperative mission of Christ—call each baptized Catholic to action. The Church has a lasting mission to perform in this world, a mission that is ever more apparent, and the need for it is ever more urgent. In fact, mission isn't something the Church does. It is what the Church is! This year, World Mission Sunday is on October 20. This is a worldwide collection for the missionary Church that offers emergency aid when disaster strikes, cares for refugees in war-torn countries, provides rural health clinics and transportation for priests, catechists, religious and lay pastoral workers. It offers financial support for the daily needs of all missionaries. Please pray for the missions and be generous on World Mission Sunday.

Second Installment in a series by Dr. Brett Salkeld on Catholic Voting

How (Not) To Vote Like a Catholic

If I manage to achieve my goal with this piece, I will have left many of my readers unsettled. I will be critiquing two prominent approaches to voting as a Catholic that are oversimplified and misleading. They do, however, have the advantage of being clear and simple. People like clear and simple things. Especially when faced with difficult choices and imperfect options. My goal is to make us uncomfortable with these too simple approaches. And people don't like being made uncomfortable....

2019 JESUIT LECTURE: Resisting Throwaway Culture: How a consistent life ethic can unite a fractured people

DATE: Wed, Oct. 16, 2019

TIME: 7:00 PM

WHERE: Champion Auditorium
3737 Wascana Parkway

WHO: Dr. Charles Camosy
Associate Professor, Theological and Social Ethics Fordham University

ABOUT THE LECTURE:

Based on his book of the same name, Dr. Camosy reflects on this time of realignment when we have been given a unique moment to put aside the frothy, angsty political debates and think harder about our deepest values. This lecture will be an opportunity to dialogue about what kinds of values should serve as the foundation for a new political culture. More Info about Dr. Charles Camosy and the Jesuit Lecture Series can be found at the links below:

<https://championcollege.ca/events/jesuit-lecture/>

<https://www.facebook.com/events/2653797187984875/>

The Flourishing Congregations Institute was established at Ambrose University to explore and describe church attenders', leaders', and experts' perspectives on the variables that account for flourishing within Catholic, mainline, and conservative Protestant congregations in Canada. You can be a part of the continued research by participating in the survey at this link.

<https://tinyurl.com/fc236c>

The survey takes about 15-20 minutes to complete. You can stop and return to it if you can't complete it in one sitting. For more information, or if you have questions, please contact Amanda Trainor at the Archdiocese of Regina 306-352-1651 ext. 230 or atrainor@archregina.sk.ca

TF159: Resisting Throwaway Culture with Dr. Charlie Camosy - Part 1

Dr. Charlie Camosy, professor of Ethics at Fordham University in New York, joins Eric and Brett during this Reverence for Life month in the Archdiocese of Regina. In this first of a four-part series on his latest book "Resisting Throwaway Culture" they'll look at the broad and problematic cultural and political context we find ourselves in and begin an examination of the potential for a consistent life ethic to break down the barriers of polarization and create an ethos centered on care for the vulnerable in all facets of society.
