"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?' 'Here I am,' I said, 'send me!'"

(Isaiah 6:8)

Every day, in little ways and in big ways, God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need. The next time you hear God calling, have the courage to walk through the door and say "Here I am, Lord."

February 10, 2019 Reflection - 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Isaiah 6: 1-2a, 3-8 • 1 Corinthians 15:1-11 • Luke 5:1-11
"Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." —Luke 5:8

We are blessed by the Lord all the time. How do we show God that we are grateful for the blessings he showers on us? One way is to begin by saying thank you for our blessings and remembering God has given them to us - we haven't earned them on our own. Today's Gospel shows us that if we listen to God and his commands, he will surprise us with blessings, just like Simon Peter was surprised by the HUGE catch of fish. Sometimes we'll receive enormous blessings that we can't miss (like Peter's catch of fish), but other times the blessings and graces will be small and it will take some thinking to recognize them. Let's not forget to thank God for those little gifts too.

Dear Lord, thank you for loving me so much that you bless me all the time. Please make my heart more grateful for the gifts of your love and your blessings that are in my life.

What are some things in my life that are blessings from the Lord?

Are there times I don't feel grateful for God's blessings? Why
