RCIA CORNER

The Mass

This week we explored the Mass.

What is the meaning? History? Vocabulary?
What are the parts? Elements?

Did you notice that dismissal occurs after the Liturgy of the Word and before the Liturgy of the Eucharist begins?
Do you know why?

Do you know that at the end of Mass you are also dismissed?

Father will end Mass, sending us to be missionaries in the world, proclaiming the Gospel in word and deed by saying:

Go forth the Mass is ended
OR
Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord
OR
Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life
OR
Go in peace

January 20, 2019 - 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Reflection

Isaiah 62:1-5 • 1 Corinthians 12:4-11 • John 2:1-11

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." —1 Corinthians 12:7

All of us are blessed to receive the Holy Spirit twice in our lives in special ways: once at baptism, and then again at confirmation. Jesus even received the Holy Spirit when John baptized him. What does it mean to receive the Holy Spirit? The Scriptures tell us that the Spirit is given to each of us for some benefit, but doesn't explain exactly what that means. Think of it any skill or talent you have as a gift of the Holy Spirit that you can use to help someone. If you are good at math or science, then you might be able to use that gift to be a doctor and help sick people. If you are good at farming or gardening, you can use our gift to help feed people. If you are good with babies or children, you can use that gift to be a childcare worker or a teacher. The Holy Spirit is a gift that God gave us to help us know how we can hear and respond to God with the gifts we are given.

Dear Lord, teach me how to quiet myself so that I may hear and respond to how the Holy Spirit wants to lead me in my life.

Have I ever felt led by the Holy Spirit? How did I know it was the Spirit? How can being still and quiet help us hear the Lord?

Serena Saskatchewan, a natural family planning service, invites you to our annual gala fundraiser "Une Nuit à Paris" on Saturday, February 9, 2019 at Our Lady of Lourdes in Saskatoon. ### Happy New Year! As we have now officially begun 2019, activities begin again!

The Development and Peace/Caritas Canada Share Lent workshop for Regina will be held on Wednesday evening, January 23 at Holy Child Parish, 2636 7th Ave. East at 7 p.m.. The Archdiocese of Regina is pleased to invite you to an exclusive screening of Salt and Light Television's newest documentary, "Magisterium of the People". ### TF122: Rock n' Roll Part 1

Over and above all the interesting and inspiring conversations that are had in the hallowed halls of the Pastoral Centre - one topic dominates among our show hosts and anyone they can get to listen. Rock and Roll. Is it possible to make a 'Theology of Rock and Roll' a thing? What kind of thing might that be? And where might this fit in an evangelization strategy? We begin a 4-part series where we might even answer these questions and more while we jam some mad air guitar riffs this week on Thinking Faith!

Prayer service for Healing from Clergy Sexual Abuse The Light Shines Through the Broken Places

Everyone is welcome to join Archbishop Don to come together for a Prayer Service for Healing from Clergy Sexual Abuse. The Light Shines Through the Broken Places is a reminder that although victims are often broken the light of Christ may shine through their brokenness. The service will encourage us to find the courage to listen deeply and compassionately to those who were wounded in a place where they should have found love.

Sunday January 20, 2019 7:00 p.m. at St. Cecilia's Parish – Regina.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." (1 Corinthians 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you, feel His love, peace and joy!
