"Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." And once again he bent down and wrote on the ground. When they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the elders; and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him.

Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She said, "No one, sir." And Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way, and from now on do not sin again."

April 7, 2019 Reflection - 5th Sunday in Lent

Isaiah 43:16-21 • Philippians 3:8-14 • John 8:1-11

“Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” —John 8:7

How often do we find ourselves judging others or making critical comments about how other people act or what they look like? Does giving your opinion sometimes lead you into gossip? This is what happened to the people in Jesus' time when they found this woman committing a serious sin. They wanted to punish her. They felt justified shaming her in public and acting like they never did anything wrong. They did not want to admit they sometimes sin too. It was easier to find fault with someone else. Jesus reminded them, and us, that we should be careful of what we do with our opinions. Instead of criticizing others, we should look at ourselves and seek forgiveness for what we have done.

Dear Lord, it is easier to look at others' faults than our own. Please give us the grace to see our own weaknesses and ask forgiveness for them rather than judging others.

How can I love those around me, instead of judging? How can I encourage others when I hear them being judged?

Fifth Sunday of Lent

TF133: A Lenten Retreat With Henri Nouwen's The Return of the Prodigal Son - Part 2

We wrap up our two-part Lenten retreat by reflecting on the deep compassion, love, and mercy of our heavenly Father. Using Henri Nouwen's Spiritual classic, The Return of the Prodigal Son as a guide, we'll encounter the reality of a Heavenly Father who deeply desires a life with us, accepts the pain and suffering of letting us freely wander far from Him, and waits with ever-patient open arms to welcome us home, this week on Thinking Faith!

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ..."
(Philippians 3:8)

The first commandment says that we should not put other gods before the Lord. Sharing all of our gifts, our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support Church needs helps us keep God first in everything. It helps us from putting other gods before God. It helps us to use our gifts for the glory of God and not for our own honor.

Request for Proposals - Videographer

The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Regina is seeking a videographer, an individual or company, who can help visually tell the stories of the Archdiocese. The Archdiocese will accept proposals from an individual or company, to provide video content, from planning and filming to production, to be used throughout the Archdiocese of Regina. Total project time is expected to average approximately 16-20 hours per month.

Projects include, but are not limited to, the annual Archbishop's Appeal, the Archbishop's various messages throughout the year, video coverage of stories and projects, working with diocesan staff to develop and conduct interviews for projects, and live streaming of diocesan events as determined by diocesan leadership. All video and still footage as well as completed projects would become the property of the Archdiocese of Regina. Some travel throughout the Archdiocese of Regina will be expected. The successful candidate will provide their own equipment for filming and production.
