We are excited to welcome back the Saturday morning Women's Faith Formation.

This is our opportunity to explore, deepen and share our faith in ways that inspire us to carry it out in God's unique plan for each of us.

In the upcoming months, let's explore the rich treasure of wisdom about living lives of faith amidst challenges in our modern society through the social teaching of the Catholic Church.

Please join us for a short topical presentation, reflective prayer, conversation and fellowship in Meeting Room 2 beginning at 9:30 am on:

February 22 - Care for God's Creation

March 28 - Care for the Poor and Vulnerable

April 18 - Call to Family Community and Participation

RCIA CORNER

The Mass

One of the topics we explored at RCIA is The Mass. We looked at the structure and had a great discussion on what is going on, the gestures, the prayers and our observations.

Since then we've also been looking at what Father Mike Schmitz has to say about the "Motivation to Go to Mass" (https://youtu.be/FuyxQvb9Ayw)

What do you expect to get from Mass?
Do you sometimes think Mass sometimes boring or takes too long?
Take a look at what Father Mike has to say and then let us know about your perspective.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity
January 19-26, 2020

As we conclude the week of prayer for Christian Unity, we pray Gracious God, change our hearts and the hearts of our Christian communities, that we may be agents of your healing.

"The community of all the baptized is not a mere 'standing beside one another,' and certainly not a 'standing against one another,' but wants to become an ever fuller 'standing together.' Spiritual ecumenism and ecumenical dialogue serve to deepen this 'standing together."

40th Annual Nash Lecture: The Feminist Revolution in Religion

Wed., Feb. 5, 2020 at 7:30 pm at Campion College Auditorium. As we enter a new decade, religion and social politics are deeply intertwined and questions regarding equity in the Church continue to swirl. The new feminist revolution seeks creative ways to highlight voices often silenced, raise awareness of intersectionality, and shift the larger conversation while promoting forward thinking transformation. In this talk, Dr. Gina Messina will discuss the status of the Church and its influence on socio-political dialogue, the impact of having a progressive pope who has graced the cover of Rolling Stone Magazine, and a new understanding of revolution within the feminist religious movement that claims faith as its foundation to fuel positive social change within Church and society. Dr. Messina is an American scholar and Catholic theologian with a focus on the intersection of gender, religion, and politics. She is an Associate Professor of Religious Studies at Ursuline College, a prolific author and editor, and a sought after speaker. She has appeared on MSNBC, NPR, at the United Nations' Commission on the Status of Women, and as a TEDx speaker.

* Provides income tax benefits

Benefits to the Church:

* Increases donations by promoting consistent giving to support cash flow
* Simplifies the forecasting of future donations
* Reduces the number of cheques to process and deposit
* Reduces time spent for volunteers that do the after mass counting and deposits
* Provides secure and easy maintenance of stewardship commitments

Testimonial:

A growing number of churches are finding electronic giving programs to be one more means of providing parishioners with an opportunity to be Christian stewards and to be generous givers in their local church. As one church member stated:

> "Thanks to the Electronic Giving program at my church, I am able to consistently support the mission and ministry of our church. Before the Electronic Giving program, I would contribute just a few dollars whenever I attended church. Sadly, I spent more money buying coffee in one day than I gave to the church each week! Now, I feel like a full participant in the ministry of the church. The Electronic Giving program has helped me develop my financial discipleship. It's amazing!
