Please be aware that some emails and text messages are being sent from scammers claiming to be some of our priests and office staff. Names are being pulled from parish and diocesan websites to create fake email (often Gmail) accounts.

You will notice the email address may have some correct info, though in an unfamiliar form with additional characters, numbers or periods. Most will ask you to contact them or send information.

Please do not reply to any suspicious emails. If you are in doubt, contact the person the email is claiming to be from using an alternate contact method (do not reply to the suspicious email).

Also note: At no time will our priests, deacons, religious or diocesan staff contact you seeking Google Play cards, iTunes cards or any other form of personal financial assistance

RCIA CORNER

Holy Sites

How far do you think you need to travel to find a Holy Site? We hear often of those that travel to Italy and visit the Vatican. Or even of trips to Fatima in Portugal or Medjugorje in Bosnia. But have you ever considered the site in our own Archdiocese?

This week we toured our own Holy Rosary Cathedral on 13th Avenue and heard about various pilgrimage sites in our Archdiocese.

We also made a virtual trip to Medjugorje when Sister Theresa Frey and Jim Frey gave us a talk on their recent trip.

May 26, 2019 Reflection - 6th Sunday of Easter

Acts 15:1-2, 22-29 • Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23 • John 14:23-29

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." —John 14:27

What does the world say will bring us peace? Being popular at school? Winning at video games? Making a sports team? Being the star in a play? For parents, it might be a promotion at work, an exotic vacation, having plenty of money to invest so it will make even more money for us, or perhaps good health. All these things can give us peace, but only for a while. There will always be something new that we need or desire. Even our health will only last for a limited time, since we will all eventually die. Jesus offers us a different kind of peace; one that will never end. It is the peace of heaven, where we will be surrounded by unconditional love and there will be no more tears or suffering. Dear Lord, we so desire the lasting peace you promise. Please help us to set our sights on heaven instead of on the provisions of this world. Help us obey you in all things. When have we felt the peace Jesus promises?

PARISH VOLUNTEER

Appreciation Night
Friday, May 31st
7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

From Mass Coordinators and Committee Chairpersons, to Alter Servers and kitchen helpers; we at Resurrection Parish want to sincerely thank all our Parish volunteers for all that you do to help keep our Parish running smoothly. To show our appreciation; we'd like to invite you all to come and join us on May 31st from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm for some free food and refreshments.

There will be wine and cheese for the adults, as well as popcorn, mini do-nuts etc. for the younger folks (okay, the older folks can have some of that too).

And please be sure to sign the huge volunteer appreciation banner that we'll have at the event. We'll be displaying it in the Gathering Space at a later date to help show everyone just how many people it actually takes to keep things running so smoothly at Resurrection Parish.

Thanks again and we hope to see you on May 31st.

TF140: Relics Of Padre Pio In Regina

More wonderful and inspiring relic weirdness is coming to our fair city with the visit of FIVE relics of Pio of Pietrelcina – better known as Padre Pio. With two stops; Holy Rosary Cathedral on Saturday, June 1 and Miller Catholic Highschool on Sunday, June 2, there'll be no reason to miss this one in a lifetime event! Director of Pastoral Services Lisa Polk and Deacon Eric Gurash talk about the wonderful weirdness that are Catholic relics, trade some cool stories about St. Pio and discuss how you and those you love can share the graces of this amazing saint this week on Thinking Faith!

<http://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/tf140-relics-of-padre-pio-in-regina>

There are 4 requests for the Saint Pio relic tour:

1. Pray for the relic tour and the local events;
2. Plan to attend one of the local events where the relics will be present, and invite and encourage others to attend;
3. Volunteer to help, or to provide food for the volunteers, at the local events; and
4. Provide financial support for the local events.

For more information about how to engage further on any of these four areas, please contact communications@archregina.sk.ca. You can share the event on social media from our Facebook and Instagram pages.

Join the Catholic Teachers' Guild of Regina and Dr. Brett Salkeld for their lecture series on Catholic Education at St. Martin de Porres Parish (4720 Castle Road) on Tuesday, June 4, 2019. Evening begins with prayer and fellowship at 7. Talk set to begin at 7:30. Or to join us live online, sign up for the free webinar at <http://thinkcatholic.thinkific.com/courses/free-webinar-series-a-catholic-way-of-knowing>.

Our next topic is: Permeating Math and Science

While every Catholic high school student should know names like Gregor Mendel (the monk who discovered genetics) or Georges LeMaitre (the priest who first hypothesized the Big Bang), the bigger questions here are about the relationship between God, humanity and a remarkably ordered universe. "What does it say about the universe that we can create a language to describe it with the precision of mathematics?" "What kind of thing is humanity, that it would create such a language?" "Why are math and science both predictable and full of surprises?" "What kind of Creator makes a reality like this?" Come out and think about how even math and science are full of opportunities for bringing a Catholic worldview into our classrooms.

The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Regina will gather in joy and thanksgiving for the Ordination of The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program Go Make Disciples!

"There is always hope. This community provides strength and a place to share and express where you are at and how you are feeling. There is a range of ages and people involved. I am a young mom among grandparents and although there is this dynamic difference among us, there is compassion and understanding." - Farrah Semegen, Holy Child Parish, Regina.

One weekend a month from October until June Catholics just like you are encountering Jesus Christ and his plan of sheer goodness while deepening their relationship with his Church. Are you ready to answer Christ's call to know, love and serve him more deeply? We are currently accepting applications for the Fall intake of this three-year program. For more information or to register, please contact our Program Coordinator, Eric Gurash at 306.352.1651 ext 211 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"...do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (John 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you.

BULLETIN BOARD

In Christ, there is both East and West - Covenant Vespers - May 26 at 3pm

Come! Join in the celebration as we mark an important stage on the way towards a renewed Covenant. Building upon the 2011 Covenant between Anglicans and Roman Catholics in southern Saskatchewan, we are working towards an expanded covenant with Lutherans (ELCIC) and Ukrainian Catholics in 2020. This year, on May 26, come and celebrate the work of the original Covenant partners over the past 8 years and pray for a renewed life together in Christ. Learn about the practical commitments our four churches are making towards living together as the church of Christ. The annual Covenant prayer service will be an Eastern Catholic Vespers, celebrated on Sunday, May 26th at 3pm at St. Athanasius Ukrainian Catholic Parish (55 McMurchy Ave., Regina). There will be a time of fellowship after the service.

The new LAURC Covenant can be found at <https://bit.ly/2V5vQQy>.
