Welcome

“No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth).” (Luke 16:13)

Is money a “god” that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from being a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.

RCIA CORNER

Volunteering with RCIA is a wonderful way to share your faith and make a difference to someone else's journey. Last year over 60 parishioners volunteered and this year the needs are the same. Please consider helping in whatever way you can. The volunteer roles are as diverse as the time commitment needed.

Please prayerfully consider if there is a role for you.

Volunteers needed: Catechist, Snack, Prayer, Dismissal and Witness

Quotes from Last Year's Volunteers

Witness: "...Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have..." 1 Peter 3:15. This would be the spiritual equivalent of the so-called elevator pitch that most people have for career situations. Well, prior to my involvement with RCIA, I didn't have this witness story ready to share. However, reflecting on my faith journey and being able to put into words God's goodness to me was one of the best experiences of my life.

I hope that my witness story was also edifying in some way to others." – Gozie

Catechist: "As a member of our Catholic faith God calls us to go and make disciples (Gospel of Matthew). Our Catholic Church is meant to be alive and growing through evangelization and discipleship. Participating in the RCIA, is one way that we carry out that responsibility."

In the words of St. Thomas Aquinas: "Every baptized person is to teach in order to lead others to faith and is the task of every preacher and of each believer" – Charlene

We are looking for people to help with our various youth programs. It is up to all of us to support the youth of our parish! To find out how you can help, please leave your name and contact information at the Welcome and Information desk

2019 JESUIT LECTURE: Resisting Throwaway Culture: How a consistent life ethic can unite a fractured people

DATE: Wed, Oct. 16, 2019

TIME: 7:00 PM

WHERE: Campion Auditorium
3737 Wascana Parkway

WHO: Dr. Charles Camosy
Associate Professor, Theological and Social Ethics Fordham University

ABOUT THE LECTURE:

Based on his book of the same name, Dr. Camosy reflects on this time of realignment when we have been given a unique moment to put aside the frothy, angsty political debates and think harder about our deepest values. This lecture will be an opportunity to dialogue about what kinds of values should serve as the foundation for a new political culture. More Info about Dr. Charles Camosy and the Jesuit Lecture Series can be found at the links below:

THANKS

Many thanks to all who supported the Visitation House Holey Soles relay team in last weekend's Queen City Marathon. The team, consisting of Ron Yeomans, Kyla Warneke, Kyle Fitzel, Jeremy Deis and Shelan Schulkowsky finished the 42.2 km distance in a time of 4:19:37 and placed 46th out of 105 teams. We are grateful to the various parish CWL's throughout the city for collecting contributions and pledges. In each of the past years we have collected close to 10 thousand dollars in support of this very worthy outreach to women in our city. On behalf of Theresa Hilbig and her staff of volunteers at Visitation House, thank you again. Fr. John Weckend [Relay team coach and manager]

TF157: Eucharist PEW Study Hullabaloo - Part 2

Deacon Eric and Dr. Brett continue the discussion on the latest PEW study suggesting that 70% of Catholics do not believe what the Church teaches about Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist. This week they will look at two popular responses to the issue made soon after the study's release. We're walking the line between liturgies and education this week on Thinking Faith!

City of Regina Moving To Regulate "Body Rub Parlors"

Although the majority of residents at public meetings want "body rub parlors" banned, Regina City Council is moving ahead with the approval to regulate these facilities. They will be making their final vote at the next City Council Meeting, Monday, September 23rd.

Though the time has passed to submit an opportunity to speak to City Council at the meeting being held Monday, September 23rd, you are invited to attend the council meeting so that councilors can see by your presence that city residents (and those who visit the city) do not agree with this regulation. You can also contact the council members personally to let them know your concern. A list of the council members can be found on the City of Regina website.
