"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established..." (Luke 16:25-26)

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

RCIA CORNER

Are you called to help with RCIA? There are so many ways, there is sure to be one that matches to your gifts and available time. Below are quotes from your fellow parishioners on volunteering with RCIA

Prayer: "Praying for others helps me to feel like I have a part in making the world a better place. It helps me stay connected to our Lord. I also pray for all people that cross my path that are struggling in a small way or a big way." – Debbie B

Snack: "This is a very easy way of supporting RCIA & is so very much appreciated by the people who are considering our faith. It can be whatever you chose to bring with a few allergic exceptions. If there is enough volunteers, you just have to bring once" – Marge

Dismissal: "Thank you for the opportunity - I learned a great deal from the candidates during the dismissal times and quite enjoyed my time with them." – Leeann

Catechist: "I enjoyed the opportunity to share my faith with the RCIA candidates. The preparation for the session caused me to explore my own faith at a deeper level." – Jim

Sponsor: "I came, saw, learned, grew." – Timothy

OCTOBER – REVERENCE FOR LIFE MONTH

Greetings everyone! We are called by our arch-bishop to set aside the month of October pondering and promoting life in all its stages from conception to natural death. We will be saying a decade of the rosary and the St. Michael prayer before all the Masses in October for those various intentions. We will also be collecting for the Santa Maria Nursing Home to support their spiritual program. Check the website of the Archdiocese and follow Rev. for Life links to articles by Dr. Brett Salkeld.

Thanks for your support and caring. God bless, Rev. for Life Committee!

First Installment in a series by Dr. Brett Salkeld on Catholic Voting

Why the Church Won't Tell Catholics Who to Vote For

As we approach the upcoming federal election, Catholics are forced to answer the question, "How does my faith inform my politics?" As citizens we have the right to vote based on our values, and as Catholics we have the duty to do so. Any suggestion that we should refrain from "imposing" our Catholic values on a pluralistic society is non-sense. Those who do refrain from voting according to their own values simply let others "impose" their values on the rest of us unchallenged... <https://archregina.sk.ca/news/2019/09/16/why-church-won't-tell-catholics-who-vote>

TF157: Eucharist PEW Study Hullabaloo - Part 2

Deacon Eric and Dr. Brett continue the discussion on the latest PEW study suggesting that 70% of Catholics do not believe what the Church teaches about Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist. This week they will look at two popular responses to the issue made soon after the study's release. We're walking the line between liturgies and education this week on Thinking Faith!
